THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

DN 12:1-3; PS 16: 5, 8-11; HEB 10:11-14, 18; MK 13:24-32
Today's readings are in stark contrast to the joy of the holiday season that is fast approaching, warning us instead of dark times ahead and our inevitable judgment day.

The first reading from the prophet Daniel describes a time "unsurpassed in distress since nations began" and warns that "many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, and others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace." The second reading, from Hebrews, speaks of Christ who "waits until his enemies are made his footstool."

However, when we firmly establish for ourselves as individuals — as a family and as a parish that we will give to God the first and best portion of our Time, Talent, and Treasure — the warnings we read in the Scriptures today should be no cause for alarm. In fact, we can view these words as encouragement — "Keep Calm and Steward On," no matter what comes our way.

One of the blessings of a stewardship way of life is that in challenging times, whether in our homes or workplaces or even our beloved Church itself, we can take great comfort in knowing we have a concrete plan to keep our priorities in proper order. And, when we put God first in all aspects of our lives, we will experience the peace that He gives that surpasses all understanding.

John Paul II's teachings on the family

The great danger for family life, in the midst of any society whose idols are pleasure, comfort and independence, lies in the fact that people close their hearts and become selfish.

Relics of St. John Paul II

The Parish has received a first class relic of St. John Paul II. The installation of the relics and first veneration was on Sunday November 17th. From now on it will be exposed on the first Saturday of the month at Blessed Sacrament Church at the 9:00am mass.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick
Traditionally referred to as Extreme Unction or Last Rites, since it was requested primarily when a person was thought to be near the time of death. However, the Anointing of the Sick is also administered to bring spiritual and even physical strength during a severe illness or when a person is to undergo a critical surgery or treatment. This sacrament unites a sick person's suffering with that of Jesus Christ and brings forgiveness of sins. This sacrament can be repeated as often as required, do to a change in the state of a person's health. It is most likely one of the last sacraments one will receive. Oil, a symbol of strength, is the sign of this sacrament. A person is anointed with oil and receives the laying on of hands from a priest. To set up an appointment, please call the office ahead of time.
