THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

ZEP 2:3 – 3: 12-13; PS 146: 6-10;

I COR 1: 26-31; MT 5: 1-12A

The Gospel Reading for today is what is popularly called the Sermon on the Mount. Many think it is the absolute epitome of Jesus' teachings. To be sure it tells us how we are to live our lives, the attitudes we are to have. We must remember that those who were waiting and hoping for the Messiah expected a military leader, one who would lead them in battle against their oppressors.

In His Sermon on the Mount Jesus gives a more accurate perspective of Who He is. He begins what we call the Beatitudes (the word means "blessings") with "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." In a sense we are all "poor in spirit." Without the guidance and strength provided us by the Lord there is no way we can escape this poverty of spirit, of spirituality, if you will.

That is why we often say that living God-centered lives is at the very core of stewardship. Being a disciple of Christ translates into being a steward of our many gifts and blessings. Some scholars believe that Jesus may have given this sermon often during His ministry. Those who followed Jesus and became the earliest Christians, the first members of the Church, were fond of quoting and referring to what the Lord said on this occasion. As stated, Jesus provides us with the secret of living a good life. If we rely on Him and follow Him, we will be blessed.

Candlemass Day, celebrated on February 2, commemorates the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple and the Purification of the Virgin Mary, as described in Luke 2:22-40. This feast, known as the Presentation of the Lord, symbolizes Christ as the light of the world, often marked by the blessing and lighting of candles. Rooted in ancient Jewish law, it occurs 40 days after Christmas, reflecting the time required for a mother's purification after childbirth. Read more at:

 The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is deeply grateful for your continued support. With a growing need in our community, we are seeking caring volunteers to help with home visits to those in need. If you feel called to share your time and compassion, please contact the parish office.

When Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple for His presentation, they were fulfilling God's law and entrusting their Child to Him.

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH #176

We are constantly teaching our kids by what we choose to make a priority. We encourage schoolwork to be done well, engage in extra-curricular activities for fun and development, pray and attend Mass so faith stays at the forefront of our family values. We are however, also teaching our children when we are not trying to teach them. In those moments we are silently saying, you matter and I love being with you, that family time to relax is vital to good mental health and that undertaking chores together connects us as a family. So, enjoy the non-teaching times because they matter more than you might think! (From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office; 905-528-7988 ext. 2250)

The Chosen -
Please join us after Mass on Sundays, for a showing of The Chosen. Come and experience the Bible brought to life through these inspiring videos. For many of us, Scripture can be hard to understand—seeing it unfold on screen can help deepen our understanding and faith. All are welcome!
Or watch it from home. Go to Prime Videos and search The Chosen.
