THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

EZ 33:7-9; PS 95:1-2, 6-9; ROM 13:8-10; MT 18:15-20

Today's readings remind us of the importance of our relationships. God created us to live in communion with Him and with one another. Our families, neighbors, friends, and parish community need us, and we need them as we grow together in holiness.

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul gives us a simple but profound guide for living in relationship with others. Echoing the words of Christ, he writes, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love is the guiding principle that helps us become good stewards of every relationship God has entrusted to us.

In today's Gospel, Jesus shows us what that love looks like, even when relationships become strained. He tells His disciples, "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother."

Rather than ignoring conflict or allowing resentment to grow, Jesus teaches us to approach one another with humility, charity, and a sincere desire for reconciliation. This is faithful stewardship of our relationships.

He also reminds us of the strength found in Christian community: "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

God never intended us to journey to heaven alone. May we care for the relationships He has entrusted to us and help one another grow as faithful disciples.

Be A Man Group

To the men of our parish, we are all called to share our faith, but to share your faith, you must know your faith. The Be A Man group resumes our weekly gatherings on Saturday, September 19th with a focus on Catholic virtues. If someone were to ask you the virtues of your faith, could you answer them, or would you stare back at them blankly? The Be A Man Group wants to explore the various virtues, and how we live them. Join us for coffee, conversation and Catholic brotherhood Saturday mornings at 7am at St. Pius X in Brantford. The rewards are heavenly.
